

Do I need to wear an Engine Cut Off Switch Link (ECOSL)?

ECOS – Engine Cut-Off Switch.

ECOSL – A device that connects the operator of a vessel to the ECOS. Usually a cord type of lanyard, but may be a wireless electronic system.

NOTE: If your boat was built prior to 1/1/20, and does not have an ECOS installed, there is no requirement to install one.